

Over the past decade, Bitburg football teams have had plenty of problems against Heidelberg. Wins haven't come very often . . . and two wins during the same season has been unheard of. Well, this year's team was able to pull off a double win over the Lions. The second win came during the Baron's homecoming game . . . making it doubly sweet.

