

School is a place where people gather to learn about working together and to learn how to become responsible adults. — RICH MARVENTANO, Class of '82

