

School is a place where people are brought together to be educated. Here they learn the basic skills that they will use in their jobs and at home. Attending school teaches us discipline that will be invaluable to use the rest of our lives. — ELAINE CAMPBELL, Class of '83

