THE INSIDE STORY

Ms. Mayo stated that she felt this school year start finished the marching season well. Although the son in style, wearing brand new uniforms. The uniforms were ordered the middle of October. School was short of teach-ers in June, and arrived at the gym ceiling fell in, every-thing else seemed to go 26.

John McSmoothly, quarterback, started Barons scoring when scampered for 25 yard. The Barons had a great offensive day as they combined for more than 250 yards total offense. Milton Curry led the rushing and attack.

Now that Bitburg has a one lunch program, the teachers have decided that students should hold all student council, class and club meetings during lunch. Yet, we are expected to make up any missed or not finished work, test reviews and seminars during lunch too. Students can only be at place at one time. Grades usually take over any other activities, teachers who leads to low participation in many other activities which can cause friction between participants. Organization advice is to lift people up. That is nothing I never dreamed of being caught and it turns out to be a frightening
