With the arrival of another school year came a new group of anxious freshmen. "What is high school like? Are the courses very hard? Where's Ms. Mayo's office?" These were typical questions asked by the "littlest Barons" during their first week on campus. After the annual Back-to-School Dance, the confusion began to recede and the freshmen began to feel at ease. Elections for class officers were held, and Bill Adams took his place as President. Before long, most of the new Barons knew of BHS traditions; however, some still weren't aware that the senior courtyard was NOT a shortcut to the opposite hallway. The freshmen's year held many firsts, a football victory against Osterholz, a pep rally, a first homecoming . . . but the freshmen soon learned that high school was not all fun and games. High school classes proved to be more challenging than any they had taken before. Almost immediately the freshmen held bake sales to raise money for their annually held Christmas Dance. As usual, the dance was a great success. The active Class of '85 had a memorable year.

Freshman Class Officers: Bill Adams, President; Richard Sciscente, Vice-President; Jenny Hollenbeck, Secretary; Connie Mann, Treasurer.
