

Learning to play the game, playing by the rules and rising to the challenges are all important aspects of sports. Sports give us a chance to show off our talents and abilities in front of spectators.

Sportsmanship is a very important factor when you play. Games can be ruined by players' bad attitudes. As in everything the BOUNDARY LINES are the limit a player can go.

