

WORKERS INC.

When it comes to homework and other responsibilities of being a Senior, many find it impossible to tie the pieces together. Some elite Seniors are managing to do it all and are having fun at it.

Arnetra Gainey has been working at the Castle Theater for 3 months. "It's a good way of showing me the responsibilities of life and how life is really going to be when I get out on my own." Chasity Phillips works at the Plaza Theater. "It gives me my own spending cash, so I won't have to ask my mom for money." That is indeed true. How many times have you watched your parents' face crinkle, like when you asked for $150 for Senior pictures! Other Seniors, like Jamie Martinez, a bagger at the Bitburg Commissary, seems to have a different perspective to working. "School and work are easy to handle... more money, more fun!"

Working during your high school years can also give you a career to fall back on in the future. Jason Smith, a DJ at Amadeus, has been working for 3½ months. "It gives you the chance to meet a lot of people." These Seniors are really one of a kind.
