

A challenge means requiring full use of one's abilities, energy, and resources. Then school should have been a challenge, right?

Junior Jennifer Palmisano replied, "A challenge is something to make you work hard."

Some classes like History

English, and Math should be challenging but the others should not."

School offered challenges in different ways, depending on the student and his or her learning style.

Senior Carl Kruger said, "A challenge is an obstacle that you're going to try to overcome. School would be more challenging if the academic attitudes were more competitive."

A challenge in school may have meant a challenge among peers or a challenge with the academetic requirements.

Junior Steven Smith stated, "A challenge is a goal that is set for you to meet that is going to be harder than any other."

School is not really that hard to me. School should be a challenge."

Senior Kellie Smith replied, "A challenge is something that doesn't come easy. We plan on going to college and school prepares us for that as well as life.

It shows us that everything doesn't come easy and not everybody lives in Hollywood."

SO... How tough is it?

by Jon Tanguay

Freshman Kathleen Rohr stated, "A challenge is something that is hard to achieve but possible."

Only you could decide if school would be challenging, dependant upon the paths you chose throughout your school years."

Looking in magazines for collage pictures, Sean McDonald and Nancy Evelyn find new ways to express the symbolism of The Scarlet Letter.

