“It’s been hard on my family and me. My uncle’s brother was one of the firefighters that was lost in the attack. He left behind his wife and two little girls. I just hope that the tight security will continue throughout the years”

-Beth Birnie

“I feel the pain for all the families that grieve their lost ones. I think we should go on with our lives like normal to show the terrorists that we don’t show fear!”

-Keri Ihde

“I was moved and everybody has changed since it happened. I believe that our future will be prosperous and that we will continue to come together as a country and as Americans.”

-Jack McGurk
