

Boy's Basketball

Varsity Athletes around Bitburg once again pulled out their basketball shoes and started warming up for the 2003 Baron Basketball season. The varsity team had returning players Ryan Thomas, Eric Polumbo, Joel Parker, Anthony Fomicola, and Raynaldo Hernandez, in addition to the teams new players who included Joel Brown, BJ Phillips, Trey Murray, and Alyx Walks.

The Junior Varsity team had many returning players such as Roberto Hernandez, Trey Wilson, Ryan Dumas, and Erik Martz and new faces included Jamar Robinson, Dominique Robinson, Tom Mueller, Brandon Morales, Fritz Mead, Jesse Gutierrez, and Brian Metzger.

These two group of mighty Barons worked hard and used their skills to the fullest to reach their ultimate goal of once again being one of the top teams Europe. But the 2002-03 Boy's basketball season proved to be a season of hard fought battles. The Varsity team ended with a 3-9 record for regular season, but ended on a high note after having an awesome tournament performance losing to eventual winners of Division II in a very close game.

"This team has been one of the more enjoyable groups I've worked with. They all have great attitudes and have learned a lot about basketball this season. As a coach, all I ask is that a team shown improvement each week and they accomplished just that. I hope they continue to work on their skills during the off-season and I look forward to seeing them next year."

- Coach Martz

Top Left: Ashley Baltadonis, Coach Martz, Alyx Walks, Anthony Fomicola, Phillips, Joel Parker, Michael Hunter, Coach Hairstone, Erin Cooke, B. Left: Trey Murray, Eric Polumbo, Ryan Thomas, Trey Wilson, and Raynaldo Hernandez.