

Voices from the Crowd

Lindsay Kopecky

"When the cheerleaders did the dance to "Call Me Maybe" it was fantastic to hear everyone sing along!"

Your 2012 Homecoming Court escorted by proud family members!

Morgan McGrath

"It was nice to see all the Barons together showing Baron Pride."

Head football coach, Mr. Laue gives an inspirational speech highlighting the "opportunity" we are given to destroy the Raiders.

Damian Gatterburg

"I had a great time and I really felt like I was a part of something bigger."

On behalf of the student body, senior Jordan Martel named Ms. Fulton our "Honorary Homecoming Queen" because without her support our pep rally and bonfire wouldn't have been possible.

THANK YOU Ms. Fulton!

Zachary Maxwell

"My favorite part was when the entire school marched through the streets and threw out candy to the people watching. There were awesome posters, cool face paint, and a lot of school spirit!"

Colton Engelmeier

"This year's pep rally was dope! Probably the best one I've been to; my favorite part about it was the football team's breakdown!"

Bailey Loomis

"I really liked how this pep rally seemed similar to one you'd go to in the states. I had such a fun time, and making homecoming court made the experience even better."
