Interview with Ms. Heinen, the S2S sponsor.

Q: What is S2S?

A: School ambassadors who have been recognized as school leaders who participate in a variety of programs and are enthusiastic about encouraging new students to join or to try new activities.

Q: How long have you been involved with the S2S program?

A: Since it started which was six year ago.

Q: What is your favorite part of the program?

A: Seeing the new students feel good about being here and being welcomed.

Q: What do you think of this year so far?

A: They did a good job of welcoming 150+ new students and their families. They helped Admin to get the building ready by putting up bulletin boards as well as moving furniture and books. They organized "ice breaker" activities for all grade levels and led tour groups through the building. They assembled new student information booklets and helped to organize and serve hamburgers/hotdogs to the new students and their families.
