

Future Business Leaders of America

FBLA students strive to develop personal and professional skills that can be utilized as career supportive competencies. The Spring Leadership Conference in Garmisch, Germany, features seminars on public speaking, leadership techniques, organizational skills, education/career guidance and competitions ranging from audio visual presentations to web design. At the event local chapters elect the new FBLA Officers and prepare for the summer FBLA National Conference. Attendance at the Spring Leadership Conference is highly recommended for aspiring Local and State Officer Candidates.
