

Stuttgart breaks into win column; nips Barons twice

STUTT GART, Germany (Special) — Stuttgart's Stallions broke into the victory column for the first time, winning a pair from winless Bitburg, 59-50 Friday and 56-50 Saturday.

The Stallions evened their record at 2-2 while Bitburg is 0-4 in Blue Division competition.

Ed Vojensky and Mig Billings combined in the opening victory, Billings getting all of his 16 points in the first half and Vojensky, the Stallions' high-scoring guard, adding 18 of his game-high 20 after intermission.

Billings tallied numerous times on feeds from steals — by Vojensky, Jim Johnson and Dave Ganovsky. Herman Kumagai turned in an excellent board game for the winners.

The Stallions made it two straight despite a fine 29 point performance by Jerry Jackson who had 45 points for the weekend.

Ganovsky scored 12 points and Billings and Kumagai 10 each for the Stallions Saturday. Bob Touchstone, Ganovsky, Kumagai and Johnson pulled down 40 rebounds between them for the winners. Bitburg defensive pressure limited Vojensky to only eight points.

Jackson, who was successful in getting the Stallions' big men in foul trouble Saturday, was their only man in double figures, but Friday had help from Sean Terry with 12 and John Walls with 11.

Stuttgart's JVs also won both games, 39-21 Friday and 54-21 Saturday.

Bucs take pair to lead Red Division cage race

BAUMHOLDER, Germany (Special) — The Baumholder Bucs ran their 1972-73 record to 4-0 and climbed into first place in the Red Division here over the weekend by beating the Bad Kreuznach Bearkats twice.

Junior Garcia tossed in 23 points Friday to lead the Bucs to a 58-46 triumph and he also was the big point man on Saturday with 13 as Baumholder took a 63-41 verdict.

Coach Sterling Troxell's Bucs handcuffed Bad Kreuznach in both games with a solid man-for-man defense that forced many Bearkat turnovers. George Davis led the defensive corps.

Junior Garcia also was a demon off the boards for the Bucs. He had 20 rebounds in the opening game and 16 the next day. Vic Garcia added 11 points to the Friday win and Mike Sullivan chipped in with 10. Tirrell Ching and Dale Mitchell paced the Bearkats with 12.

Junior Garcia got 12-point assistance from Ron Davis Saturday and nine other Bucs broke into the scoring column. August Witt topped Bad Kreuznach with 13, Tom Jordan added 11 and Ching came through with 10.
