Black Hawks Rip Karlsruhe, 28-6, As Hardy Stars

KARLSRUHE, Germany, Oct. 31 (Special) — Quarterback Frank Hardy found the wet field to his liking as he ran for two touchdowns and passed for a third to lead the Bremerhaven Black Hawks to a 28-6 Silver Division victory Saturday over the hosting Karlsruhe Knights.

The Black Hawks scored twice in the opening period en route to their third victory in division competition against two losses. Karlsruhe sustained its fifth defeat with only one win.

A blocked punt set up the first Bremerhaven touchdown, tallied by Hardy on a one-yard plunge. The run for a two-pointer failed. Later in the first quarter, Hardy connected with end Jim Barett on a 63-yard touchdown gallop that moved Bremerhaven in front, 20-0.

The Black Hawks wrapped up the scoring in the third quarter when Hardy rolled out and steamed into the Karlsruhe end zone from seven yards away. Palmer run across the two points.

McCoy Makes Nardi 5th Knockout Victim

RICHMOND, Calif., Oct 30 (AP)—Undefeated middleweight Ralph McCoy, 158½, of Richmond, kept alive his pro string of never having an opponent go the distance by knocking out Joe Nardi, 161½, of Chicago in 2:44 of the second round of a scheduled 10-rounder.

McCoy, who won 160 of 163 amateur bouts, took his fifth straight as a pro. He knocked Nardi down for an eight-count with a left hook and then was awarded the knockout by referee Frankie Carter when Nardi could no longer defend himself.

Red Division Grid Action

Jackson Runs Bison By Wolves; Barons Turn Back Apaches, 12-8

MANNHEIM, Germany, Oct. 31 (Special) — Don Jackson ran wild Saturday as he carried Mannheim's Bison to a 24-0 Red Division victory over the Wuerzburg Wolves.

The victory enabled the Bison to remain tied with Heidelberg for the league lead, each team having a 3-0-1 Red Division mark. Mannheim is 5-0-1 overall, while the Wolves are 1-3 in league play and 1-5 overall.

Jackson scored three touchdowns in Saturday's contest, winding out 147 yards in 16 carries for a 9.2-yard per carry average.

Early in the second period Jackson opened the scoring by running into the Wuerzburg end zone from 20 yards out.

This next time Mannheim had the ball, Jackson again scored, this time from the 17. The Bison racked up their third touchdown of the second quarter shortly before halftime when Jackson bulled in from the three.

After a scoreless third period, the Bison went on the move, with Zack Carter tallying to end a drive.

Mannheim amassed 313 yards on total offense while holding the Wolves to 110 total yards.

BITBURG, Germany, Oct. 31 (Special) — The Bitburg Barons scored early and then hung on to defeat the Augsburg Apaches, 12-8, in a Red Division clash here Saturday.

The victory was the Barons first in league play this season to go along with two losses and a tie while the Apaches record rose to two wins with two wins and a pair of losses.

An alert defensive play by Mike Barnhill gave Bitburg what proved to be the winning margin in the first quarter. The freshman linebacker intercepted a Frank Sharkey pass and raced 45 yards to score.

In the second quarter, Harry Minard and Paul Havner alternated in carrying the ball for the Barons from their own 40-yard line to score. Havner tallied from five yards out.

Late in the final stanza, the Apaches finally got on the scoreboard when quarterback Frank Sharkey escaped a host of tacklers from a seemingly 20-yard loss and raced 35 yards for the touchdown.

The Apaches tried desperately to score again, but were thwarted by an aroused Bitburg defense led by line-backer Landon Wilson.

Minard was the workhorse for the Barons on offense, gaining 52 yards in 10 carries while Wills starred on defense.

Augsburg	0	0	0	8—8
Bitburg	0	6	0	6—12

Augsburg—Sharkey run with interception pass (run failed)
Bit—Havner 5 run (run failed)
Bit—Minard 25 run (J. Sharkey pass from P. Sharkey)

Champions Crowned in 14 Events

Stublarec Children Take 11 Titles In Swimming at Sports Carnival

By DOUG MOORE
Staff Writer

RAMSTEIN, Germany, Oct. 30 (S&S) — They finished crowning the champions in Ramstein's spectacular three-day Sports Carnival here Sunday, and the swimming Stublarec kids swam away with 11 titles.

Championships were awarded in 14 events, ranging from trap and skeet shooting to table tennis.

Barbara, Susan, Ging and Jim —talented children of the Ramstein base commander, Col. Michael J. Stublarec — were the star of the swimming and diving competition. However, the children of Maj. John Alfred—John, Robert, Diane and Carolyn—helped turn it into a two-family affair by accumulating eight of the 28 crowns.

Barbara Stublarec took four crowns among 13-14 year-old girls. Susan won three among the 12-13 girls. Ging added two among the 9-10 boys and Jim swept two among the 7-8 boys. John Alfred had six wins in competition involving 13-14-year-old boys. Diane was a single winner among the 13-14 girls, and Carolyn won once among the 7-8 girls. Robert Alfred failed to win a crown but he had two seconds in the 11-12 bracket and Carolyn was second twice in her age group.

The Alfred children swept both boys' and girls' one-and-three-meter diving. Robert and John finished 1-2, and Diane beat out Carolyn.

John Alfred's other wins came in the 50-meter butterfly, 100-meter breaststroke, 100-meter backstroke, 100-meter freestyle and 200-meter individual medley. Barbara Stublarec's four wins came in the 100-meter freestyle, 100-meter backstroke, 100-meter breaststroke and 200-meter individual medley.

Ramstein bowlers also had a good day, sweeping their three-event match against a German team in Kaiserslautern. In the team event, Ramstein scored a 2,739-2,741 triumph. Don Rose shot a 603 to win the singles and John Wood-Stan McVey turned in a best-ball 682 for the doubles victory.

Mike Mojer of Rhine-Main was one of Sunday's double winners. He defeated Sembach's Jim Skupa, 21-15, 21-10, for handball singles laurels and then teamed with Hal Leffler to win the doubles. They polished off the Ramstein duo, Lee Butler-Ed Stawartz, 21-9, 21-16, in the final event of the three-day carnival.

Stallions Tip Munich for First Win

MUNICH, Oct. 31 (Special) — With Bill Park and Phil Twomey leading the way, the Ludwigsburg Stallions broke into the win column for the first time this season with a 14-8 victory over Munich in a Blue Division encounter here Saturday.

Twomey banged over to score both touchdowns which were set up by the running of Park. In all, the Stallion duo accounted for 126 of the winners 187 yards.

The Stallions scored the winning touchdown with just two minutes remaining in the game when Twomey banged over from a yard out. The drive began on the Ludwigsburg 40 with Twomey and Park doing the bulk of the running, moved the 67 yards to paydirt in just five plays.

Twomey scored the first Stallion TD in the fourth quarter after Munich had jumped on the board to lead briefly, 8-0. Park and Bob Hampton moved the ball to the one, from where Twomey went over.

In addition to his strong running, Twomey also stood out on defense from his middle guard position. Carl Thorne also did yeoman work on defense for the winners.
