DALLAS (UPI)—Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy, was killed Sunday by a self-appointed executioner.

Jack Ruby, 42, a Dallas nightclub owner, broke through a police guard at the city hall and fired a .38 caliber bullet below the heart of the man who allegedly shot Kennedy on Friday.

Oswald, whose murder was televised nationally, "said absolutely nothing before or after he was shot," a police official said.

Within an hour of Oswald's death, Dallas homicide chief Will Fritz, one of the most respected lawmen in Texas, said grimly the case of the presidential assassination was now "closed."

Fritz reported flatly Saturday that police had uncontestable evidence that "Oswald killed President Kennedy."

Oswald, 24, was cut down shortly after 11 a.m. CST (1700 GMT —2 a.m. Monday JST) as he was being led toward an armored car waiting to take him to the (Continued on Back Page, Col. 1)

Crowds Mourn Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Amid the doleful roll of muffled drums and through silent throng of mourners, the body of President Kennedy was carried from the White House Sunday and borne to the Capitol to lie in state.

Jacqueline Kennedy, perfectly composed but with deep circles under her eyes, emerged from the White House behind the coffin holding the slain President. Her two children, daughter Caroline and son John Jr., were at her side—each clutching a hand.

John will be three Monday—the day of his father's funeral—and Caroline will be six on Wednesday.

The late President's family got into a single limousine with President and Mrs. Johnson and Kennedy's brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

At a slow pace, the cortege with its black caisson and flag-draped coffin set out on the mile-long journey to the Capitol where the fallen chief executive will lie (Continued on Page 6, Col. 1)
