

Reagan shot, wounded; bullet punctures left lung

The STARS and STRIPES

AUTHORIZED UNOFFICIAL PUBLICATION FOR THE U.S. ARMED FORCES
 Vol. 39, No. 345
 Tuesday, March 31, 1981

15c Daily and Sunday
 ★ ★ 1F 21855 A

Condition reported stable; aide Brady, 2 others also hit

From press dispatches
 WASHINGTON — President Reagan was shot in the chest by a young gunman Monday. He underwent emergency surgery at George Washington University Hospital and was reported in good condition. Reagan was wounded in the left side in the assassination attempt.

 His press secretary and two officers also were shot.

The assailant was wrestled to the ground and arrested. The Secret Service identified him as John Warnock Hinkley Jr., 22, of Evergreen, Colo.

Reagan was conscious after the shooting and his condition was stable, according to top White House aide Lyn Nofziger. Another spokesman, David Gezgen, said the president had walked into the hospital.

The ABC television network reported that the bullet had punctured a lung.

A White House spokesman had first said that Reagan was not hit when the gunman fired four to six shots from a .22-caliber pistol at close range as Reagan emerged from the Washington Hilton Hotel.

Three other men were hit — presidential press secretary James S. Brady, a Secret Service agent and a District of Columbia police officer. A White House aide said of Brady's wound: "It doesn't look good."

Hinkley was tackled and pinned to the pavement by police officers and the Secret Service. He was whisked away by squad car to a nearby precinct. He was reported uninjured.

"I can confirm that the president was shot once in the left side," Nofziger said at George Washington Hospital, where Reagan and Brady were taken.

Vice President George Bush, in Texas for an address to the state Legislature, headed back to Washington aboard Air Force Two, upon hearing of the assassination attempt.

Nancy Reagan, who was not at the Washington Hilton, rushed to the hospital to be with her husband.

Nofziger said Reagan, although wounded, walked into the hospital and was chatting with aides throughout.

The highest-ranking members of Reagan's Cabinet, including Secretary of State Alexander Haig and Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger, sped to the
(Continued on back page)

Wounded president helped from scene

President Reagan waves (top photo) at the crowd on the scene outside a hotel in Washington as a gunman opens fire. A moment later (center photo) his face takes on a stricken look as he apparently realizes he's wounded. Secret Service agents then push Reagan (bottom photo) into the presidential limousine, which took him to the hospital. — AP

CPO target of fire bomb in Frankfurt

By J.L. KOMINICKI
 Staff writer

FRANKFURT (S&S) — Terrorists fire-bombed an Army civilian personnel office here Monday in the second of two attacks on U.S. military installations in Germany within 24 hours.

The blast, which occurred at 2:45 a.m., damaged portions of the first floor of the Civilian Personnel Office on Hansa Allee near the Abrams Building complex, a V Corps spokesman said.

Damage was estimated at $10,000, the spokesman said. About $100,000 in damage was reported in Sunday's bombing of a military intelligence building in Giessen some 30 miles north of here. No one was injured in either blast.

(Frankfurt police late Monday said a
(Continued on back page)