

Singer Janis Joplin Found Dead in Hotel

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Janis Joplin, whose writhing, wailing and sometimes profane performances electrified the music world, has been found dead in her hotel apartment at the age of 27.

The coroner said Monday that death was due to an overdose of drugs and tests would be needed to determine the type.

Police called for an autopsy after saying they found needle marks on one arm. The autopsy surgeon reported numerous needle marks on both arms, with fresh ones on the left arm.

There was a small amount of alcohol but no evidence of barbiturates, ingredients of

Manson Hurls Self At the Judge

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Charles Manson leaped head first over the counsel table trying to get at the judge in the Sharon Tate murder trial Monday and later shouted, "I'm going to cut your head off."

The tiny 35-year-old defendant went hurtling on the floor in front of the judge's bench and had to be subdued by three deputies who led him from the courtroom with his arms twisted behind his back.

Superior Court Judge Charles H. Older, an original member of the Flying Tigers before World War II, calmly noted that the defendant had jumped in the direction of the bench and ordered that the record reflect that fact.

The three women codefendants began chanting words that sounded like:

"We're going now to be killed. We're ready now to be killed."

The judge ordered them several times to be silent, and when they continued their singsong they were ordered out.

Defendant Susan Atkins tried to wrench herself from the grasp of a woman bailiff as she was led out. The others went docilely.

Manson had entered the room quietly and listened to the brief testimony of one minor witness when he suddenly erupted.

"Are you going to use this courtroom to kill me?" he suddenly demanded of Judge Older.

Older told him to keep quiet or he would be removed.

"The minute I see you are going to kill me, you know what

RHEIN-MAIN AB, Germany (S&S) — A huge C141 Starlifter carrying men of the 1st Bn, 5th of the 1st Inf Div set down at 3:43 a.m. Monday, the guard of 11,000 U.S.-based troops due to arrive in Germany for Reforger II, a month-long ATO training exercise.

Arriving at Stuttgart Air Field the advance elements of the 1st Bn, 63rd Armor, and Hq and Co of the 2nd Brigade. The rested Cap airmen start home; see Page 8. Shows will follow troops into the field; see Page 9.

Remainder of the headquarters arrive Tuesday. The remainder of the 63rd will be air-lifted later in the week.

An advanced party of Hq and Co, 1st Brigade, landed Monday at Ramstein AB, along with Co of the 1st Maint Bn.

Before the day was over, nearly 1,000 of the men were scheduled to land here, at Ramstein and at Stuttgart, with massive airlift from Ft. Riley, Kan., due to be complete Oct. 11.

The bulk of the men arriving for the exercise are members of the 1st and 2nd Brigades of the 1st Inf Div.

"The Big Red One is combat-ready," said Maj. Gen. Robert Linvill, 1st Div CG, in arrival ceremonies here Monday morn-

Orioles, Reds Win Pennants

The Baltimore Orioles and the Cincinnati Reds completed three-game sweeps of the play-off series to win the American and National pennants and moved into the 1970 World Series Monday.

Yesterday's hero, Bobby Tolan, singled home the winning run in the eighth inning as the Reds took their third straight from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-2, in Cincinnati.

The Orioles slammed the Minnesota Twins, 6-1 before a home crowd to become the AL champs for the second successive year. Last season Baltimore also raced past the Twins in three games to sweep the best-of-five series.

Elsewhere in the baseball world, the Los Angeles Dodgers announced they traded 1969 rookie-of-the-year Ted Sizemore and catcher Bob Stinson to the St. Louis Cardinals Monday for heavy-hitting Richie Allen.
