Grapplers Advance From Regionals to USDESEA Finals

KARLSRUHE, Germany (Special)—The Ludwigsburg Stallions and Augsburg Apaches coasted to Class A and Class B Southern Regional high school wrestling championships, respectively, here over the weekend.

The Stallions chalked up 110 points and Augsburg finished second in the over-all competition with 60 points, despite its Class B stature. Heidelberg followed with 57, Munich notched 48 and Mannheim totaled 43 to round out the top five. Wuerzburg (38), Karlsruhe (33) and Nuernberg (29) trailed the leaders.

Four defending USDESEA champions made it back to the finals, scheduled for Friday and Saturday at Wiesbaden Air Base gymnasium. Three of them — Augsburg's Dwight Baker at 103 pounds, Mannheim's Zack Carter at 145 and Ludwigsburg 165-pounder Pat Twomey — won regional championships.

The fourth, Heidelberg's Bruce Landry, lost to Baker's brother, Cliff, in the 127-pound championship match. He is eligible for the USDESEA meet because the first three men in each weight bracket qualify for the European high school championships.

En route to its 110 points, Ludwigsburg took four championships, four seconds and a third to place nine men in the finals. Stallions winning titles besides Twomey were Harris Oishi at 133, Willy Pope at 180 and heavyweight Bill Graham.

Augsburg also won four blue ribbons but the Apaches failed to pick up a second place and showed only one third-place finisher. Augsburg titles were claimed, in addition to the Baker brothers, by Mike O'Donnell at 112 and Frank McAlhany in the 154-pound bracket.

Other champions include Heidelberg's Roger Montgomery, 95 pounds; Wuerzburg's Dave Waldo at 120, and Karlsruhe's John Zamecki at 138.

BAUMHOLDER, Germany (Special) — Wiesbaden nudged Kaiserslautern and Frankfurt to take the Class A Northern Regional high school wrestling championship here Saturday.

The Warriors scored 83 points. Kaiserslautern followed with 81 and Frankfurt tallied 77. Baumholder won Class B laurels with 44 points. Bad Kreuznach and Berlin had 35 apiece and Bitburg finished with 15.

Kaiserslautern's Steve Stevenson and Frankfurt's Jim Blanks triumphed at 112 and 120 pounds, respectively, to keep alive their hopes of a repeat USDESEA championship. The USDESEA finals are Friday and Saturday at Wiesbaden Air Base.

Joining Blanks as Frankfurt winner were 127-pound Bob Selton, 133-pound Mike Nicholson, 180-pound Steve Chapman and heavyweight Mike Jernigan. Garnet Glen won a second championship for Kaiserslautern.

Other winners included Berlin's Mike Ganno at 112 and Fred Abt at 145, Bad Kreuznach's John Willet at 138 and Wiesbaden's Orris Hambleton at 165. Although Wiesbaden won only one crown, it led the list with nine qualifiers for USDESEA; Kaiserslautern had eight and Frankfurt seven.

The top three finishers from each bracket in the Northern Regional qualify for further competition.

ANAHEIM (AP) — Ben Warley scored 43 points Monday night and set an American Basketball Association record with 16 straight baskets in leading the Anaheim Amigos to a 145-142 overtime victory over Houston's Mavericks.

Warley began his consecutive streak in the second quarter to reduce a 14-point Houston lead.

By halftime, Warley had connected on six straight shots and the Amigos led 70-65.

The Amigos continued to pour it on in the third period as Warley hit 10 consecutive shots and Anaheim led 87-71.

But Houston tied it 129-129 at the end of the regulation play when Willie Somerset, a 5-foot-10 guard, went on a scoring spree.

Somerset scored 43 to tie Warley for game honors. Art Becker had 32 for the losers.

Warley's consecutive record breaks the string of 10 straight by Lefty Thomas of Anaheim, set last month.

Warley's Record Helps Anaheim Nudge Mavericks

ANAHEIM (AP) — Ben Warley scored 43 points Monday night and set an American Basketball Association record with 16 straight baskets in leading the Anaheim Amigos to a 145-142 overtime victory over Houston's Mavericks.

Warley began his consecutive streak in the second quarter to reduce a 14-point Houston lead.

By halftime, Warley had connected on six straight shots and the Amigos led 70-65.

The Amigos continued to pour it on in the third period as Warley hit 10 consecutive shots and Anaheim led 87-71.

But Houston tied it 129-129 at the end of the regulation play when Willie Somerset, a 5-foot-10 guard, went on a scoring spree.

Somerset scored 43 to tie Warley for game honors. Art Becker had 32 for the losers.

Warley's consecutive record breaks the string of 10 straight by Lefty Thomas of Anaheim, set last month.

Warley's Record Helps Anaheim Nudge Mavericks

ANAHEIM (AP) — Ben Warley scored 43 points Monday night and set an American Basketball Association record with 16 straight baskets in leading the Anaheim Amigos to a 145-142 overtime victory over Houston's Mavericks.

Warley began his consecutive streak in the second quarter to reduce a 14-point Houston lead.

By halftime, Warley had connected on six straight shots and the Amigos led 70-65.

The Amigos continued to pour it on in the third period as Warley hit 10 consecutive shots and Anaheim led 87-71.

But Houston tied it 129-129 at the end of the regulation play when Willie Somerset, a 5-foot-10 guard, went on a scoring spree.

Somerset scored 43 to tie Warley for game honors. Art Becker had 32 for the losers.
