

Knights Withstand Late Bearkat Rally

KARLSRUHE, Germany (Special) — Quarterback Ray Enos sparked Karlsruhe to a 24-0 third-period lead and the Knights withstood a late Bad Kreuznach surge to down the Bearkats, 30-20, in the opening Gold Division game for both schools here Friday. A 36-yard pass from Enos to James Solomon gave the Knights a 6-0 lead at the half and Karlsruhe tacked on three quick touchdowns after intermission. Tony Jamison scored on runs of 14 and four yards and Enos sprinted 12 yards for the third TD.

An offside penalty cost the Knights a fourth touchdown in the third period. Solomon intercepted a Terrel Ching pass five yards deep in his own end zone and outraced the Bearkat defense, only to have the his dazzling run called back.

Ching got Bad Kreuznach moving in the third period, hitting Dale Mitchell with key passes. Mike Mitchell ran the ball in the final two yards but Ching's pass for the two-pointer was incomplete.

Karlsruhe tackle Tom Gentry recovered a fumble in the Bearkat end zone to give the Knights a 30-6 margin in the final period.

It was too little too late for Bad Kreuznach, as Ching hit Hamlin Williams for a 12-yard score and Mike Mitchell plunged one yard for the final Bearkat touchdown.

Stallions Use 'Big Play' To Blank Raiders, 24-0

STUTTGART, Germany (S&S) — Stuttgart's Stallions posted their second straight shutout of the season, blanking the Kaiserslautern Red Raiders, 24-0, Saturday in the Blue Division opener for both teams.

Stuttgart defeated Munich last week, 14-0, while scoreless Kaiserslautern, defending Blue champion, was bowing to Mannheim, 6-0.

The Stallions hit with deadly suddenness for three first half scores and a comfortable 18-0 lead. On the second play of the game Eddy Vojensky swiped a Raider pass and sped 75 yards for a touchdown.

With about two minutes left in the half Stuttgart tacked up two more TDs. After stopping a Raider drive by recovering a fumble on their own five, the Stallions started working out of the hole aided by a roughing the kicker penalty.

Moments later, Kim Keith unleashed a 65-yard scoring pass to Doug Turrell.

After stopping a Raider series at its own 38, Stuttgart took over. On the first play, Keith bombed Kaiserslautern with a 62-yard aerial to Sid Seymour.

Kaiserslautern Wins As Four Card 80s

RAMSTEIN, Germany (Special) — Getting four scores in the 80's, Kaiserslautern defeated Mannheim, Berlin and Bitburg in a quadrangular golf meet at Woodlawn Golf Club here Friday.

Lindy Stewart paced the Red Raiders with a 40-40-80 in competition which started out in the rain and finished in clear weather. Ron Reeder (87), Curt Darden (83) and Ron Masse (89) were the other Raiders who compiled a varsity score of 333. Jeff Schwamb, who fired a 74 last week, played for the JVs this week and turned in the day's best score, a 76.

Mannheim turned in a 376 score for second place with Stanley Lopinsky showing the way for the Bison with an 89. Berlin was next with a 387 total and Bitburg finished with a 428 although Dale Bryan turned in an 87.

Cinnamon Lionberger fired 53 on nine holes to win the girls competition and lead the Red Raiders to a one-stroke victory over Bitburg. Marquita Garcia had a 58 for the Barons.

on Kaiserslautern's 20, the Stallions added the final touchdown when Vojensky connected with Larry Luckett for 19 yards and a TD.

Later in the fourth period the Raiders had a score called back when a clipping penalty nullified a pass interception that went all the way. The gun went off with the Raiders on the Stallion 15.

Keith was good on 7 of 10 passes for 140 yards and two TDs as Stuttgart struck for 166 passing and only 23 rushing. K-town picked up 204 overland and just 21 in the air.
